CHARDONNAY BLENDS

2005	Domaine Jacques Puffeney 'Cuvée Sacha' Arbois Andrew Jefford said: "If you are one of those people who long to escape from the shallowness and tedium of wine fashion, then the Jura is for you". Cuvée Sacha is a blend of Savagnin (aged with flor-yeast, much the same way as during sherry-production) and Chardonnay (aged in the traditional Burgundian way). A savoury, almost salty, dry and utterly intriguing wine. Best drunk with food - try with Manchego sheep's milk cheese or our chef's Wagyu & venison terrine.	Jura	FRANCE	46
2008	Livio Felluga 'Sharjs' IGT This wine sees Chardonnay paired with Ribolla Gialla, a grape native to Friuli. The blending of these two varieties has resulted in a textured, fresh and complex wine, with luscious aromas of white and yellow flowers, citrus, mint and fresh peach.	Friuli Venezia Giulia	ITALY	42
2005	Marchesi de Frescobaldi 'Pomino Bianco' DOC (Chardonnay, Pinot Bianco)	Tuscany	ITALY	31

VIIGNIER, MARSANNE, ROUSSANNE, GRENACHE BLANC ETC.

The historical homeland of these grape varieties is the Rhône Valley in France (Condrieu, Hermitage, Châteauneuf-du-Pape, etc.) though today they are successfully grown in many other parts of the world. What sets these varieties apart from many others is their texture: a greater viscosity results in the lovely mouth-coating sensation they are known for.

2009	Allies 'Saone' Viognier Allies duo Barnaby Flanders and David Chapman source the grapes for this wine from the Mornington Peninsula's Tuerong subregion. Aromatic peach, apricot and white flowers on the nose, with a textured yet fresh and lively palate. Delicious.	Mornington Peninsula	VIC, AUSTRALIA	26

2006	Domaine de la Citadelle 'Les Artemes' Côtes du Lubéron AC The Côtes du Lubéron appellation lies on the border of the Southern Rhône and the region of Provence; a location that draws the benefit of sun-drenched days as well as the cooling effect of the Alps and the Rhône Valley. This wine is a blend of Roussanne, Grenache Blanc, Clairette and Marsanne.	Rhône	FRANCE	34
2008	Domaine Lafage 'Cuvee Centenaire' Blanc Honeyblossom and rose petal, melon and apricot - a mouthwatering nose leads to a clean, fresh and mineral palate. Made from 100 year old Grenache Blanc vines with a splash of Roussanne. Recommended.	Languedoc-Roussillon	FRANCE	26

2008	Luis Cañas Barrel Fermented Viura	Rioja	SPAIN	27
2007	Matassa Cuvee Nogue Vin de Pays des Côtes Catalanes	Languedoc-Roussillon	FRANCE	35

The region of Catalanes in the south of France lies very close to the Spanish border, which is partly why this wine is more Spanish in style than French (many inhabitants of this area consider themselves as Catalanian, i.e. neither Spanish nor French). The Cuvee Nogue (Maccabeu, Muscat, Viognier) is a thoroughly well-made wine, with a mingling of exotic fruit and savoury characters, good complexity and balance. Well-worth a try.

2008	Domaine Champalou Vouvray Sec	Loire	FRANCE	34
2007	Domaine de Bellivière 'L'Effraie' Coteaux du Loir	Loire	FRANCE	47
	The Coteaux du Loir appellation forms a northerly outpost of the greater Loire region. The 'L'Effraie' is dry and fresh, yet has all the richness and luscious fruits you'd expect from a Chenin Blanc. A wonderful match for a minerally goat's cheese.

The 'Corullon' is the 'village wine' named after the village in Bierzo where the vineyards are located. The wines are of perfumed fruit & wild herb, fragrant and intense, refined, complex yet delicate.
